I Hear America Singing, I See America Dancing

Sunday, November 24 at 2:30 p.m.

On this 200th birthday anniversary year of iconic American poet Walt Whitman (May 31, 1819), Dance Visions NY presents a celebratory program of poetry and dance. American dance revolutionary Isadora Duncan (1878-1927), was greatly influenced by Whitman, calling him her spiritual teacher. We pay tribute to these two kindred spirits. Actress Tzena Nicole will deliver poems by Whitman, which will be illustrated by authentic Duncan dances performed by dancers Louisa Cathcart, Beth Jucovy and Hope Kroog, of Dance Visions NY. Duncan dance pianist Mark Fiedler will accompany many of these works, to the music of Chopin, Brahms, Gluck and soprano Farah Chandu will also contribute to the program. One of the works, “Labor/Famine”, to music of Michael Shyne, has been newly reconstructed in dance and music specifically for this program. This program was conceived and developed by Beth Jucovy and the late Shirley Romaine. Dance Visions NY, Inc., a not-for-profit since 2011, is Long Island’s celebrated dance company that presents the authentic Isadora Duncan repertory as well as contemporary works that often use the Duncan principles to inform the movement approach. The company founder and director, Beth Jucovy has created a vast repertory of programs presented at theaters, festivals, museums, universities, historical landmarks, libraries and parks throughout the NY metropolitan area since 1990. The company often presents multi-disciplinary programs and gives enlightening perspectives on the art and history of dance.

The Board of Trustees of Long Beach Public Library mourns the loss of our member Diane Parr on October 7th. She served for five years and was loved by all. She was an active member of our community and St. Ignatius Church.
On a personal note she was a kind sweet and gentle lady and will be sorely missed. Rest in peace my friend.
